SECOND COMMITTEE: FOR THE USE OF
MEMBERS OF THE INFORMAL CONSULTATIVE
GROUP ON THE CONTIGUOUS ZONE

PERU

1. The coastal State may, up to a limit of not more than ... miles from the baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured, exercise the control necessary to prevent or punish infringements of its customs, fiscal, immigration or sanitary legislation committed within its territory or within the aforesaid limit. */
2. Where the coasts of two or more States are opposite or adjacent to each other, none of such States is entitled, failing agreement between them to the contrary, to establish the limit referred to in paragraph 1 beyond the median line every point of which is equidistant from the nearest points on the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea of each State is measured.
3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not prejudice any measures that may be taken by the coastal State for the same purposes in respect of artificial islands or other installations situated between the maximum limits of ... miles and 200 miles.

*/ The question of unauthorized radio or television broadcasts from a ship or installation within the limit provided for in this article will be dealt with in the light of what is agreed on for the part of the convention concerning the economic zone.
